

As Pants the Hart for Cooling Streams

From Psalm 42

Verses 1,5 Tate and Brady's New Version, 1696

Verses 2-4 Kathy Kuhl, 2005

Alt Davide Marney, 2005

Davide Marney, 2005

Moderato ♩=118

E E

1. As pants the hart for cool - ing streams when heat - ed in the
 2. My tears have fed me day and night, while oth - ers al - ways
 3. With roar - ing of thy ca - ta - racts, the deep calls un - to
 4. I say to God, "Why do I mourn when en - e - mies op -
 5. Why rest - less, why cast down, my soul? Trust God and he'll em -

(repeat throughout)

Ped. (repeat throughout)

E

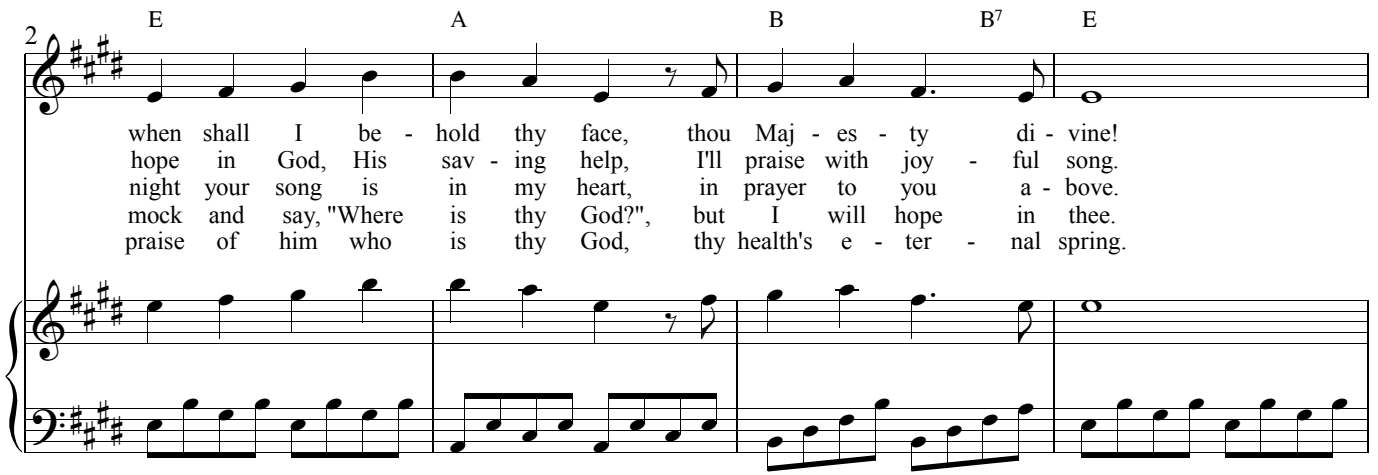

chase, So longs my soul, O God, for thee, and thy re - fresh - ing grace. For say, "Where is thy God?" But I re - call the crowd a - long the way. To deep. Thy bil - lows all pass o - ver me, thy waves up - on me sweep. By press? Oh, why have you for - got - ten me? My soul is in dis - tress." As ploy His aid for thee and change these sighs to thank - ful hymns of joy. Why

C#m7 A C#m7 A

thee, my God, O Lord, my thirs - ty soul does pine; O God's house with glad shouts, I led the fes - tive throng. So day, Lord you com - mand your ev - er - last - ing love. At with a dead - ly wound, my en - e - mies taunt me. They rest - less, why cast down? Hope still and you shall sing The 2

E A B B⁷ E

when shall I be - hold thy face, thou Maj - es - ty di - vine!
 hope in God, His sav - ing help, I'll praise with joy - ful song.
 night your song is in my heart, in prayer to you a - bove.
 mock and say, "Where is thy God?", but I will hope in thee.
 praise of him who is thy God, thy health's e - ter - nal spring.

A C^{#m7} B B⁷ E

men women unison

Ah Ah A - - men.

